

Job Title: Campaign Manager

About the role

Job Type: Full-time

Number of Vacancies: 1

Duties & Tasks:

This is a management position directly response to the Section Director. The duties are managing campaign team in Amnesty International Taiwan section. Primary work includes setting up campaign team's annual work plan and budget, quarterly report on the follow up of campaign issues and cases, Individuals at risk, Human Rights Education, Youth network and local groups' development, and Volunteer. The Campaign Manager will communicate and collaborate with Amnesty International IS and regional office, other departments in Amnesty Taiwan section.

Salary: negotiable

Location: Taipei office of Amnesty International Taiwan section

Business Trip: required from time to time

Schedule: Day shift. 7.5hrs/day (lunch break included) with a flexible schedule ( clock in between 9:00-10:00)

Days Off: Weekend offs

Starting From: March 1st , 2021

About you

You will have strong experience on human rights campaigns and issues and have knowledge about how social movements are organized and how human rights organizations run. Your strong communication and advocacy skills will allow you to persuade the public and politicians alike to take a stand for human rights.

You will have a strong understanding of the human rights challenges we face and be ready to tackle these through innovative and compelling approaches.

Qualifications:

- More than 5-years' work experience in human rights organizations or international organizations.
- Fluency in English and Chinese. Fluency in other languages is welcome.
- Basic Word processing and presentation skills.
- Excellent management skills. Experience with scheduling, planning and managing campaigns. Exceptional communication skills.
- Strong understanding of global human rights issues and trends.
- A good knowledge of the history of Amnesty Taiwan section is preferred.
- Share the same value with Amnesty International and have same passion for human rights campaign.
- Great creativity and strategic thinking. Strong implementation and collaboration ability.
- Positive mindset. Ability to get along with people.

Salary: negotiable

Festival and year-end Bonus, 14 days of Annual leave

Apply for this Role

To apply, please email your application form (CV in both English and Chinese should be included, introduction about your previous work experience is preferred) to hr@amnesty.tw before February 1st, 2021. Subject line should be written in the form as follows: 【Application for Campaign Manager - (Name)】 .

